You owe the undersigned _____ $ _____
Name of Judgment Creditor

including interest and court costs, for which a judgment was obtained against you or certified in the _____ Court on _____, _____, payment of which is hereby demanded.

If you do not do one of the three things listed below within fifteen days of the date of the mailing of this notice or of its service by the Court, we will go to Court, unless we are otherwise precluded by law from doing so, and ask that your employer be ordered to withhold money from your earnings until the judgment is paid in full or if applicable is paid to a certain extent and to pay the withheld money to the Court in satisfaction of your debt. This is called garnishment of personal earning. It is to your advantage to avoid garnishment of personal earnings because the placing of the extra burden on your employer possibly could cause you to lose your job.

YOU CAN AVOID THE GARNISHMENT BY DOING ONE OF THESE THREE THINGS WITHIN THE FIFTEEN-DAY PERIOD:

- (1) Pay to us the amount due;
(2) Complete the attached form entitled "Payment To Avoid Garnishment" and return it to us with the payment, if any, shown due on it; or
(3) Apply to your local municipal or county court or, if you are not a resident of Ohio, to the municipal or county court in whose jurisdiction your place of employment is located, for the appointment of a trustee to receive the part of your earnings that is not exempt from garnishment. and notify us that you have applied for the appointment of a trustee. You will be required to list your creditors, the amount of their claims, and the amounts due on their claims, and the amount you then will pay to your trustee each payday will be divided among them until the debts are paid off. This can be to your advantage because in the meantime none of those creditors can garnish your wages.

You also may contact a budget and debt counseling service described in division (D) of Section 2716.03 of the Ohio Revised Code for the purpose of entering into an agreement of debt scheduling. There may not be enough time to set up an agreement for debt scheduling in order to avoid a garnishment of your wages based upon this demand for payment, but entering into such an agreement for debt scheduling might protect you from future garnishments of your wages. Under an agreement for debt scheduling you will have to regularly pay a portion of your income to the service until the debts subject to the agreement are paid off. This portion of your income will be paid by the service to your creditors who are owed debts subject to the agreement. This can be to your advantage because these creditors cannot garnish your wages while you make your payments to the service on time.

THIS COMMUNICATION IS FROM A DEBT COLLECTOR

Judgment Debtor (SS# Optional) _____

You are hereby notified that the judgment creditor in this proceeding has issued an affidavit of current balance due on garnishment order in the above case. The Affidavit of Current Balance Due on Garnishment Order, below, shows the original amount of the judgment that was the basis of the garnishment order, the accrued interest to date, the court costs assessed to date, all moneys paid to the judgment creditor and the judgment creditor's attorney on the judgment balance to date, and the current balance due on the judgment. If you dispute the judgment creditor's determination of these amounts or if you believe that this affidavit is improper for any other reason, you may request a hearing before this court disputing the affidavit in the request for hearing form, attached or in a substantially similar form, and delivering the request for hearing to this court at the above address, at the office of the clerk of court, no later than the end of the 5th business day after you receive this notice. You may state your reasons for disputing the judgment creditor's determination of the amounts shown in the Affidavit of Current Balance Due on Garnishment Order in the space provided on the form; however, you are not required to do so. If you state your reasons for disputing the judgment creditor's determination, you are not prohibited from stating any other reason at the hearing. If you do not state your reasons, the court will not hold it against you, you can state your reasons at the hearing. No objections to the judgment itself will be heard or considered at the hearing. The hearing will be limited to a consideration of the amount currently due on the judgment you owe to the judgment creditor. If you request a hearing by delivering your request for hearing not later than the end of the 5th business day after you receive this notice, the court will conduct the hearing no later than 12 days after your request is received by the court, and the court will send you notice of the date, time, and place. You may indicate in the form that you believe that the need for the hearing is an emergency and that it should be given priority by the court. If you do so, the court will schedule the hearing as soon as practicable after your request is received and will send you notice of the date, time, and place. If you do not request a hearing by delivering your request for hearing not later than then end of the 5th business day after you receive this notice, some of your personal earnings will continue to be paid to the judgment creditor until the judgment is satisfied. If you have any questions concerning this matter, you may contact the office of the clerk of this court. If you want legal representation, you should contact your lawyer immediately. If you need the name of a lawyer, you should contact the local bar association.

AFFIDAVIT

The undersigned, first duly cautioned and sworn, deposes that I am _____, the Judgment Creditor herein, and that said Judgment Creditor on the _____ day of _____, 20____, duly recovered a judgment in the Common Pleas Court against the Judgment Debtor named above. I state that the Garnishee named _____ at the address of _____ may be an employer of the judgment debtor and who may have personal earnings of the same. I state that the written demand required by R.C. 2716.02 has been made, that the payment demanded has not been made and a sufficient portion of the payment demanded has not been made to prevent the garnishment of personal earnings as described in R.C. 2716.02. I further have no knowledge of any application by Judgment Debtor for the appointment of a trustee so as to preclude garnishment, nor knowledge that the debt is the subject of a debt scheduling agreement of a nature precluding garnishment.

SECTION A. COURT ORDER AND NOTICE OF GARNISHMENT

TO: _____, GARNISHEE

The Judgment Creditor in the above case has filed an Affidavit, satisfactory to the undersigned, in this Court stating that you may owe the Judgment Debtor money for personal earnings. You are therefore ordered to complete the "Answer of Employer (Garnishee)" in Section B of this form. Return one completed and signed copy of this form to the clerk of this court within five (5) business days after you receive this Order of Garnishment Deliver one completed and signed copy of this form and the accompanying documents entitled "Notice to the Judgment Debtor" and "Request for Hearing" to the Judgment Debtor. Keep the other completed copy of this form for your files.

The total probable amount now due on this judgment is $_____. (The total probable amount due includes the unpaid portion of the judgment in favor of the Judgment Creditor, which is $_____; interest on that judgment and, if applicable, prejudgment interest at the rate of _____% per annum payable until that judgment is satisfied in full; and court costs in the amount of $_____.)

This garnishment order of personal earnings is a continuous order that generally requires you to withhold a specified amount, calculated each pay period at the statutory percentage, of the Judgment Debtor's personal disposable earnings, as determined in accordance with the Interim Report and Answer of Garnishee and commencing with the first full pay period beginning after you receive the order until the judgment in favor of the Judgment Creditor and the associated court costs, interest, and, if applicable, prejudgment interest have been paid in full. You must pay the specified amount, calculated each pay period at the statutory percentage, to the Clerk of Court within thirty (30) days after the end of each pay period of the Judgment Debtor and must include with your payment a completed photocopy of the enclosed "Interim Report and Answer of Garnishee" form. You are permitted to deduct a processing fee of up to three dollars ($3) [which shall not be charged as court costs] from the Judgment Debtor's personal disposable earning for any pay period that an amount was withheld for the Garnishment Order. You are not required to file with the court the Interim Report and Answer of Garnishee for any pay period of the Judgment Debtor for which an amount was not withheld for the Garnishment Order.

This Garnishment Order will remain in effect until one of the following occurs:

- 1) The total probable amount due is paid in full as a result of your withholding of the specified amount, calculated each pay period at the statutory percentage, from the Judgment Debtor's personal disposable earnings, that commenced with the first full pay period beginning after you received the order;
- 2) The Judgment Creditor or the Judgment Creditor's Attorney, files with this court a written notice that the total probable amount due has been satisfied or the Judgment Creditor or the Judgment Creditor's Attorney files a written request to terminate this Order of Garnishment and release you from it;
- 3) A municipal or county court appoints a trustee for the Judgment Debtor and issues to you an order staying this garnishment;
- 4) A federal bankruptcy court issues to you an order staying this order of garnishment;
- 5) A municipal or county court or a common pleas court issues to you another order of garnishment of personal earnings that relates to the Judgment Debtor and a different judgment creditor and Ohio or federal law provides the other order with a higher priority than this order;
- 6) A municipal or county court or a common pleas court issues to you another order of garnishment of personal earnings that relates to the Judgment Debtor and a different judgment creditor and that does not have a higher priority than this order;
- 7) The Judgment Creditor or the Judgment Creditor's Attorney files with this court a written request to terminate and release the Order of Garnishment, and as a result, the Order of Garnishment will cease to remain in effect.

Under any of the circumstances listed above, you are required to file with this court a "Final Report and Answer of Garnishee" form. A copy of the Final Report and Answer of Garnishee form is attached to this Order of Garnishment. Under the circumstances listed in (5) and (6) above, you must cease processing this Order of Garnishment after the expiration of the full pay period within which the one hundred eighty-second (182nd) day after you began processing it falls.

Special stacking, priority of payment, and manner of payment rules apply when a Garnishee receives multiple orders of garnishment with respect to the same Judgment Debtor. These rules are set forth in R.C. 2716.041 and you should become familiar with them. An Employer Guide to Processing Continuous Orders of Garnishment is included with this Order of Garnishment.

Witness my hand and the seal of this court this _____ day of _____, 20____.

PERSONAL EARNINGS

You are hereby notified that the judgment creditor in this proceeding has issued an affidavit of current balance due on garnishment order in the above case. The document entitled "Affidavit of current balance due on garnishment order" that is enclosed with this notice shows the original amount of the judgment that was the basis of the garnishment order, the accrued interest to date, the court costs assessed to date, all moneys paid to the judgment creditor and the judgment creditor's attorney on the judgment to date, and the current balance due on the judgment.

If you dispute the judgment creditor's determination of these amounts or if you believe that this affidavit is improper for any other reason, you may request a hearing before this court by disputing the affidavit in the request for hearing form, attached, or in a substantially similar form, and delivering the request for hearing to this court at the above address, at the office of the clerk of this court, no later than the end of the fifth business day after you receive this notice. You may state your reason for disputing the judgment creditor's determination of the amounts shown in the "Affidavit of current balance due on garnishment order" in the space provided on the form; however, you are not required to do so. If you do state your reasons for disputing the judgment creditor's determination, you are not prohibited from stating any other reason at the hearing. If you do not state your reason, it will not be held against you by the court, and you can state your reasons at the hearing. No objections to the judgment itself will be heard or considered at the hearing. The hearing will be limited to a consideration of the amount currently due on the judgment you owe to the judgment creditor.

If you request a hearing by delivering your request for hearing not later than the end of the fifth business day after you receive this notice, the court will conduct the hearing no later than twelve days after your request is received by the court, and the court will send you notice of the date, time, and place. You may indicate in the form that you believe that the need for the hearing is an emergency and that it should be given priority by the court. If you do so, the court will schedule the hearing as soon as practicable after your request is received and will send you notice of the date, time, and place. If you do not request a hearing by delivering your request for hearing not later than the end of the fifth business day after you receive this notice, some of your personal earnings will continue to be paid to the judgment creditor until the judgment is satisfied.

If you have any questions concerning this matter, you may contact the office of the clerk of this court. If you want legal representation, you should contact your lawyer immediately. If you need the name of a lawyer, you should contact the local bar association.

		Court, _____, Ohio.
Judgment Debtor _

PERSONAL EARNINGS

You are hereby notified that this court has issued an order in the above case in favor of _____ the judgment creditor in this proceeding, directing that some of your personal earnings, be used in satisfaction of your debt to the judgment creditor instead of being paid to you. This order was issued on the basis of the judgment creditor's judgment against you that was obtained in _____

_____ Court in Case No. _____ on _____

The law of Ohio provides that you are entitled to keep a certain amount of your personal earnings free from the claims of creditors. Additionally, wages under a certain amount may never be used to satisfy the claims of creditors. The documents entitled "ORDER AND NOTICE OF GARNISHMENT AND ANSWER OF EMPLOYER" that are enclosed with this notice show how the amount proposed to be taken out of your personal earnings was calculated by your employer.

If you dispute the judgment creditor's right to garnish your personal earnings and believe that you are entitled to possession of the personal earnings because they are exempt or if you feel that this order is improper for any reason, you may request a hearing before this court by disputing the claim in the request for hearing form, attached, or in a substantially similar form, and delivering the request for hearing to this court at the above address, at the office of the Clerk of this Court, no later than the end of the fifth business day after you receive this notice. You may state your reasons for disputing the judgment creditor's right to garnish your personal earnings in the space provided on the form; however, you are not required to do so. If you do state your reasons for disputing the judgment creditor's right, you are not prohibited from stating any other reason at the hearing. If you do not state your reasons, it will not be held against you by the court and you can state your reasons at the hearing. No objections to the judgment itself will be heard or considered at the hearing.

The hearing will be limited to a consideration of the amount of your personal earnings, if any, that can be used in satisfaction of the judgment you owe to the judgment creditor.

If you request a hearing by delivering your "Request for Hearing" no later than the end of the fifth business day after you receive this notice, it will be conducted no later than twelve days after your request is received by the court and the court office will send you notice of the date, time, and a place. You may indicate on the form that you believe that the need for the hearing is an emergency and that it should be given priority by the court. If you do so, the court will schedule the hearing as soon as practicable after your request is received, and will send you notice of the date, time, and place. If you do not request a hearing by delivering your request for hearing, no later than the end of the fifth business day after you receive this notice, some of your personal earnings will be paid to the judgment creditor.

If you have any questions concerning this matter, you may contact the office of the Clerk of this Court. If you want legal representation, you should contact your lawyer immediately. If you need the name of a lawyer, contact the local Bar Association.
